rests, towel rack, and every up-to-date feature imaginable. You want it, because it will cook any dinner and not heat the room. No heat, no smell, no smoke, no coal to bring in, no ashes to carry out. It does away with the drudgery of cooking, and makes it a pleasure. Women with the light touch for pastry especially appreciate it, because they can immediately have a quick fire, simply by turning a handle. No half-hour preparation. It not only is less trouble than coal, but it costs less. Absolutely no smell, no smoke; and it doesn't heat the kitchen.

The nickel finish, with the turquoise blue of the enameled chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

LAFOE-METCALFE.

One of the most brilliantly appointed weddings that has ever occurred in our city, was that of Miss Minor Ellen Metcalfe and Mr. William Swane Lafoe, which took place Wednesday evening at the Christian church at 9:30 o'clock.

The ushers were Messrs. Jeff Johnson, Robert Metcalfe, Charles Rattliff and Clifton Hollowell, all attired in dress suits. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Margie Amoss, beautifully attired in a gown of white chiffon over duchess satin made en train, wearing a picture hat of white lace adorned with white ostrich plumes. The graceful and lovely bride entered upon the arm of her father and was met at the sacred altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Ray Lafoe, where the Rev. Harry D. Smith impressively said the ring ceremony that united their lives. The bride was lovely in a white satin gown gracefully draped in white lace and caught with orange blossoms. Her veil was fashioned with orange blossoms and she carried an immense bouquet of Bride's roses.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Metcalfe and has always been one of Princeton's most charming and popular young ladies. Mr. Lafoe is a popular young business man of Greenville, Miss.

The young couple left on the midnight train for a wedding trip through Canada and on the Lakes.—Princeton News.
